

RIPLEY
TEACHING SCHOOL ALLIANCE

Ripley Teaching School Alliance

Your route into Teacher Training

Do you want to train to be a secondary school teacher? Then the Ripley PGCE could be your route into teacher training.

Our highly innovative programme is designed and delivered by outstanding teachers in our partner schools. Our vision is to develop outstanding teaching and learning which is relevant to schools today and therefore linked to enhanced employment prospects.

We have schools across the NW of England who are recruiting trainees for the Ripley PGCE programme via UCAS Teacher Training.

We are now recruiting for September 2016 in the following subjects:

- Mathematics
- Science (Chemistry, Biology and Physics)
- Computing
- History
- Geography
- English
